

Birds & Insects: A Scavenger Hunt

Many birds love eating insects! They catch them from the sky, ground, sandy areas, leaves, trees, and other hidden spots. Your adventure is to spot as many birds and bugs as possible. Count how many you find. For extra fun, find out which birds love eating bugs the most.

Birds

- Birds that catch insects in the air
- Birds with long beaks
- Birds that love water
- Birds that swim
- Birds that eat seeds
- Birds that eat bugs
- Birds that sip nectar
- Birds that sing
- Birds with really big wings
- Birds with head feathers
- Birds that migrate

Insects

- Colorful insects
- Insects that can't fly
- Insects with long antennae
- Insects that visit flowers
- Insects living underground
- Insects you can eat
- Water Insects
- Insects on buildings
- Jumping insects
- Bugs that hunt other bugs
- All kinds of different bugs

- Total # birds found:
- Total # of insects found:
- Total # of birds that eat insects found:

Environment for the Americas

environmentamericas.org